

Government Wide Survey on Human Capital

April 2002

Definitions

Executives	Members of the Senior Executive Service or equivalent.
Managers	Those in management positions who typically supervise one or more supervisors.
Supervisors	First-line supervisors who do not supervise other supervisors; typically those who are responsible for employees' performance appraisals and approval of their leave.
Team Leaders	Not official supervisors; those who provide employees with day-to-day guidance in work projects, but do not have supervisory responsibilities or conduct performance appraisals.
Customers	Anyone who uses or receives the products or services that your organization provides; may include individuals within your organization and individuals outside your organization.
Leaders	This is your immediate supervisor and other managers one or two levels above your supervisor. This may include anyone with supervisory or managerial responsibilities.
Non-supervisor	Anyone who does not have supervisory/team leader responsibilities.

Some questions refer to “work unit” or “organization.” When asked about your “work unit,” please consider your experiences within the work unit headed by your immediate supervisor. The term “organization” may refer to your work unit or a broader level of the agency than your work unit. When asked about your “organization,” please consider your experiences within your immediate work unit, or one or two levels above your own.

Work Unit	This is your immediate work unit headed by your immediate supervisor.
Organization	This is your agency, office, or work unit. Respond to these questions based on the level in your organization that is appropriate for the content of the question. Depending on how your organization is structured, this could either be your own work unit, or one or two levels above your own.
